

Construction Services

From planning and design to construction, operations and decommissioning, Golder Associates offers clients a global network of environmental and geotechnical engineering professionals. As a prime contractor or construction management and project support provider, Golder is well positioned to respond to your project needs.

Golder's construction business unit offers you a network of professionals who work to deliver a broad range of solutions, including:

- Ground improvement
- Shallow and deep soil mixing
- Road and railroad subgrade stabilization
- Slope stabilization, shoring and retaining structures
- Liquefaction mitigation
- Specialty grouting
- Sinkhole remediation and void filling
- Groundwater control
- Cut-off walls
- Onsite water treatment
- Landfill construction and closure
- Mine closure
- Decommissioning and demolition
- Site remediation
- Bio-cell construction and management
- Dredging and marine construction
- Sediment control
- Erosion control
- Habitat restoration and river engineering

